ORM BENCH

White and Olle Anderson

Conceived as a modular design, four individual Orm benches combine to create a perfect circle, or two can be joined to form a semi-circle. Several benches can be placed at obtuse angles to create wave-like shapes. The bench can be made in a range of materials and combined with backrests and armrests, making it one of the most versatile benches Nola produce.

Product number

U20-50 Orm four pieces forming a circle
U20-51 Orm individual bench (legs not included)
U20-52 Orm one pair of legs
U20-53 1 Orm oiled oak end slat w/ screws

Assembly

Fully assembled.
If you create a snake shaped bench please order two end slats for the entire bench.
If you create a circle no end slats required.
When several benches are combined to make a circle or snake shape please order one pair of legs per bench ordered.

Variants	A single bench is an individual quarter (a 90-degree section of a circle). Two benches are required to form a semi-circle and four are required to create a full circle. The bench can also be made in a straight length <input type="checkbox"/> upon request.
Materials	The slats are made in oiled red oak. The frame is made in pipe steel and laser-cut sheet steel. The steel parts are formed by sand-moulded casting, zinc-electroplated, chromated and polyester powder-coated in black RAL 9005.
Additional description number	M = Grounded-mounted (with extended legs) N = Attachable F = Alkyd oil enamelled pine MH = Mahogany T = Teak
Placement	Each pair of legs has two attachment points. Order two pairs of legs for a single bench or three for two benches. Only four pairs of legs are required for four benches forming a circle. Wooden end slats must be ordered and fitted to any configuration other than a circle.
Maintenance	Oiled wood should be maintained regularly, at least twice a year. Over time oak darkens and turns grey.
Character	Circular benches that can be grouped into circles, semi-circles or wavy shapes.
